

EASTERN STATE PENITENTIARY

Connect and Learn with Eastern State

Programming for the Week of May 25

#ESPInColor

Download and print a coloring sheet, then share your finished art with us on social media using the hashtag #ESPInColor.

New page Monday

The Searchlight Series: COVID-19 Relief and Formerly Incarcerated Business Owners

Hear from several experts on how they are helping formerly incarcerated business owners who are experiencing challenges accessing relief from the federal government based on their conviction history.

Tuesday, May 26

6:00 pm ET

Streamed live on Zoom webinar

Hidden Histories: Juveniles at Eastern State

Each week, Researcher Annie Anderson digs into the history of under-explored populations, including women and children, LGBTQ people, and formerly enslaved people at ESP. Tune in this week to learn about juveniles who were incarcerated at the penitentiary.

Wednesday, May 27

12:00 pm ET

Live chat on

Hands-On History Live: Incarcerated Youth

Learn about young people in prison as part of the first in a three-part series inspired by topics explored in the novel Sing, Unburied, Sing by Jesmyn Ward.

Wednesday, May 27

2:30 pm ET

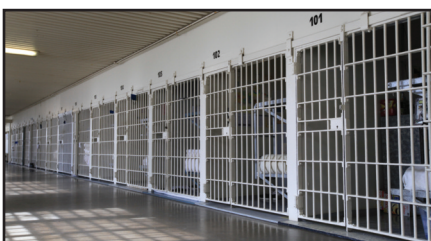

Streamed Live

Hidden Lives Illuminated: We Can if We Want To

Revisit one of the animated films created by an incarcerated artist for our 2019 project Hidden Lives Illuminated.

Thursday, May 28

Prisons and the Pandemic

Tour Guide Marney Penn shares the latest on the COVID-19 pandemic inside of prisons and jails throughout the United States.

Friday, May 29

